

Research Skills

APPROACHES TO LEARNING

The Approaches to Learning is crucial for the inquiry learning process in context with the transdisciplinary themes. They are grounded in the belief that learning how to learn is fundamental to our student's education that aims to support students of all ages to become self-regulated learners who know how to research, to think critically and creatively, communicate properly, demonstrate social skills, and pursue their aspirations with balanced self-management.

How can students demonstrate information literacy?

-  Collect and analyse data to identify solutions and make informed decisions
-  Collect, record and verify data
-  Access information to be informed and inform others
-  Make connections between various sources of information
-  Understand the benefits and limitations of personal sensory learning preferences when accessing, processing and recalling information
-  Use memory techniques to develop long-term memory
-  Present information in a variety of formats and platforms
-  Process data and report results
-  Evaluate and select information sources and digital tools based on their appropriateness to specific tasks
-  Understand and use technology systems
-  Use critical-literacy skills to analyse and interpret media communications
-  Understand and implement intellectual property rights
-  Create references and citations, use footnotes/endnotes and construct a bibliography according to recognized conventions

How can students demonstrate communication through language?

-  Interacting with media to use and create ideas and information Locate, organize, analyse, evaluate, synthesize and ethically use information from a variety of sources and media (including digital social media and online networks)
-  Demonstrate awareness of media interpretations of events and ideas (including digital social media)
-  Make informed choices about personal viewing experiences
-  Understand the impact of media representations and modes of presentation
-  Seek a range of perspectives from multiple and varied sources
-  Communicate information and ideas effectively to multiple audiences using a variety of media and formats
-  Compare, contrast and draw connections among (multi)media resources